1. BACKGROUND TO THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

- 1.1. The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 ("the Act") was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right in terms section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 ("the Constitution") of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.
- 1.2. In terms of Section 51 of the Act, all Private Bodies are required to compile an Information Manual ("PAIA Manual").
- 1.3. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and / or regulatory requirements, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released. The Act sets out the relevant procedure to be adopted when requesting information from a Public or a Private Body.

2. CAPITALWORKS GROUP

- 2.1. The Capitalworks Group is a leading independent alternative asset management firm providing investment access and specialist solutions to its clients across a wide range of industries and investment themes in global emerging markets. In South Africa the holding company is Capitalworks Investment Partners (Pty) Ltd. This PAIA Manual is relevant and has application for the major subsidiaries/portfolios/subgroups of Capitalworks in South Africa as set out in the list below.
- 2.2. In this PAIA Manual, any reference to "Capitalworks" includes Capitalworks Investment Partners (Pty) Ltd and its subsidiaries and affiliates.
- 2.3. This PAIA Manual of Capitalworks South Africa is available to view at its premises: Capital Hill Building 7th Floor, 6 Benmore Road, Benmore, Sandton 2010 as well as on its website.

3. PURPOSE OF THE PAIA MANUAL

- 3.1. This PAIA Manual is intended to ensure that Capitalworks complies with the Act and to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within Capitalworks by giving effect to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.
- 3.2. In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of the Act in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.
- 3.3. Section 9 of the Act recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:
 - Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
 - Commercial confidentiality; and
 - Effective, efficient and good governance;and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.
- 3.4. This PAIA Manual has been drafted in accordance with the generic manual for the Financial Services Industry, which has been submitted to the Human Rights Commission by the Compliance Institute of South Africa, of which this body is a member.
- 3.5. In addition, this PAIA Manual complies with the requirements of Section 10 of the Act and recognises that upon commencement of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, that the appointed Information Regulator will be responsible to regulate compliance with the Act and its Regulations by Public and Private Bodies.

5. THE INFORMATION OFFICER (SECTION 51(1)(B))

- 5.1. The Act prescribes the appointment of an Information Officer for Public Bodies where such Information Officer is responsible to, inter alia, assess requests for access to information. The Head of a Private Body fulfils such a function in terms of section 51. Capitalworks has opted to appoint an Information Officer to assess requests for access to information as well as to oversee its required functions in terms of the Act.
- 5.2. The Information Officer appointed in terms of the Act also refers to the Information Officer as referred to in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. The Information Officer oversees the functions and responsibilities as required for in terms of both this Act as well as the duties and responsibilities in terms of section 55 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 after registering with the Information Regulator.
- 5.3. The Information Officer may appoint, where it is deemed necessary, Deputy Information Officers, as allowed in terms of section 17 of the Act as well as section 56 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. This is in order to render Capitalworks as accessible as reasonably possible for requesters of its records and to ensure fulfilment of its obligations and responsibilities as prescribed in terms of section 55 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013. All requests for information in terms of the Act must be addressed to the Information Officer.
- 5.4. Contact Details of the SA Information Officer

7. THE LATEST NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 52(2) (IF ANY)

Currently no notice(s) has/have been published on the categories of records that are automatically available without a person having to request access in terms of the Act.

8. RECORDS AVAILABLE ONLY ON REQUEST TO ACCESS IN TERMS OF THE ACT (SECTION 51(1)(D))

8.1. Records held by Capitalworks

This clause serves as a reference to the categories of information that Capitalworks holds. The information is classified and grouped according to records relating to the following subjects and categories:

8.1.1. Personnel Records

- Personal records provided by personnel.
- Records provided by a third party relating to personnel.
- Conditions of employment and other personnel-related contractual and quasi-legal records.
- Internal evaluation records and other internal records.
- Correspondence relating to personnel.
- Training schedules and material.

"Personnel" refers to any person who works for or provides services to or on behalf of Capitalworks and receives or is entitled to receive remuneration and any other person who assists in carrying out or conducting the business of Capitalworks. This includes, without limitation, directors (executive and non-executive), all permanent, temporary and part-time staff, as well as contract workers.

8.2. Customer Related Records

8.2.1. Records provided by a customer to a third party acting for or on behalf of Capitalworks.

8.2.2. Records provided by a third party.

8.2.3. Records generated by or within Capitalworks relating to its customers, including transactional records.

A "customer" refers to any natural or juristic entity that receives services from Capitalworks.

8.3. Private Body Records

8.3.1. Financial records

8.3.2. Operational records

8.3.3. Databases

8.3.4. Information Technology

8.3.5. Marketing records

8.4. Internal Correspondence

8.4.1. Product records

8.4.2. Statutory records

8.4.3. Internal Policies and Procedures

8.4.4. Records held by officials of the institution

These records include, but are not limited to, the records which pertain to Capitalworks' own affairs.

- 8.5. Other Party Records
- 8.5.1. Personnel, customer or private body records which are held by another party, as opposed to the records held by Capitalworks itself.
- 8.5.2. Records held by Capitalworks pertaining to other parties, including without limitation, financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party, and records third parties have provided about the contractors/suppliers.
- 8.5.3. Capitalworks may possess records pertaining to other parties, including without limitation contractors, suppliers, subsidiary/holding/sister companies, joint venture companies, and service providers. Alternatively, such other parties may possess records that can be said to belong to Capitalworks.
- 8.6. Note that the accessibility of the records may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out in this PAIA Manual. Amongst others, records deemed confidential on the part of a third party, will necessitate permission from the third party concerned, in addition to normal requirements, before Capitalworks will consider access.

9. RECORDS AVAILABLE WITHOUT A REQUEST TO ACCESS IN TERMS OF THE ACT

- 9.1. Records of a public nature, typically those disclosed on the Capitalworks' website and in its various annual reports, may be accessed without the need to submit a formal application.
- 9.2. Other non-confidential records, such as statutory records maintained at CIPC, may also be accessed without the need to submit a formal application, however, please note that an appointment to view such records will still have to be made with the Information Officer.

10. RECORDS AVAILABLE IN TERMS OF ANY OTHER LEGISLATION

- 10.1. Where applicable to its operations, Capitalworks also retains records and documents in terms of the legislation listed in Annexure A. Unless disclosure is prohibited in terms of legislation, regulations, contractual agreement or otherwise, records that are required to be made available in terms of these acts shall be made available for inspection by interested parties in terms of the requirements and conditions of the Act; the below mentioned legislation, and applicable internal policies and procedures, should such interested parties be entitled to such information. A request to access must be done in accordance with the prescriptions of the Act.
- 10.2. It is further recorded that the accessibility of documents and records may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out in this PAIA Manual.

11. REQUEST PROCEDURE

- 11.1. Procedural Requirements
- 11.1.1. The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to the request for access to a record.
- 11.1.2. The requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable) to the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address as noted in clause 5 above.
- 11.1.3. The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify:
- the record or records requested; and
 - the identity of the requester.
- 11.1.4. The requester should indicate which form of access is required and specify a postal address or fax number of the requester in the Republic;

- 11.1.5. The requester must state that he/ she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right (section 53(2)(d)).
- 11.1.6. Capitalworks will process the request within 30 (thirty) days, unless the requester has stated special reasons to the satisfaction of the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.
- 11.1.7. The requester shall be advised whether access is granted or denied in writing. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, the requester will be obliged to state which manner and the particulars required.
- 11.1.8. If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer (section 53(2)(f)) .
- 11.1.9. If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.
- 11.1.10. The requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place.
- 11.1.11. All information as listed in clause 11 herein should be provided and failing which the process will be delayed until the required information is provided. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the necessary and required information. The Information Officer shall sever a record, if possible, and grant only access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed.

12. REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

12.1. Grounds to Refuse Access

A Private Body such as Capitalworks is entitled to refuse a request for information. The main grounds for Capitalworks to refuse a request for information relates to the:

- 12.1.1. Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person (section 63) or a juristic, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;
- 12.1.2. Mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013;
- 12.1.3. Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party (section 64), if the record contains:
 - Trade secrets of the third party;
 - Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Capitalworks, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- 12.1.4. Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties (section 65) if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- 12.1.5. Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property (section 66);
- 12.1.6. Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings (section 67);
- 12.1.7. Protection of commercial activities (section 68) of a Private Body, such as Capitalworks, which may include:
 - Trade secrets of Capitalworks;

- Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Capitalworks;
- Information which, if disclosed could put Capitalworks at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- A computer program which is owned by Capitalworks, and which is protected by copyright;
- The research information (section 69) of Capitalworks or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of Capitalworks, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.

- 12.2. Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.
- 12.3. All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.
- 12.4. If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. Such a notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of the Act. If the record should later be found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form, unless the Information Officer refuses access to such record.

13. REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN CAPITALWORKS REFUSES A REQUEST

- 13.1. Internal Remedies
- 13.1.1. Capitalworks does not have an internal appeal procedure. The conclusion made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requester is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.
- 13.2. External Remedies
- 13.2.1. A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief. A third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.
- 13.3. For purposes of the Act, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate.

14. ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY CAPITALWORKS

- 14.1. Prerequisites for Access by Personal/Other Requester
- 14.1.1. Records held by Capitalworks may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.
- 14.1.2. A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of Capitalworks. There are two types of requesters:
- 14.1.3. Personal Requester
- A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.
 - Capitalworks will voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

- 14.1.4. Other Requester
- This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties.
 - In considering such a request, Capitalworks will adhere to the provisions of the Act. Section 71 requires that the Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom the requested record relates of the request, informing him/ her that he /she may make a written or oral representation to the Information Officer why the request should be refused or, where required, give written consent for the disclosure of the Information.

Capitalworks is not obliged to voluntarily grant access to such records. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements, in accordance with the requirements of the Act and as stipulated in Chapter 5; Part 3, including the payment of a request and access fee.

15. FEES

15.1. Fees Provided by the Act

15.1.1. The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

- A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered. The request fee is not refundable; and
- An access fee, which is paid by all requesters in the event that a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the Private Body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.

15.1.2. When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request (section 54(1)).

15.1.3. If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay, as a deposit, the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

15.1.4. The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated below.

15.1.5. A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.

15.1.6. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

16. REPRODUCTION FEES

16.1. Where Capitalworks has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question. Refer to Annexure B for a listing of fees.

16.2. Request Fees

Where a requester submits a request for access to information held by an institution on a person other than the requester himself/herself, a request fee in the amount of R50,00 is payable up-front before the institution will further process the request received.

16.3. Access Fees

An access fee is payable in all instances where a request for access to information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specially excluded in terms of the Act or an exclusion is determined by the Minister in terms of Section 54(8).

- 16.4. The applicable access fees which will be payable and are included in Annexure B.
- 16.5. Deposits
 - 16.5.1. Where the institution receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the requester himself/ herself and the Information Officer upon receipt of the request is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record of disclosure will take more than 6 (six) hours, a deposit is payable by the requester.
 - 16.5.2. The amount of the deposit is equal to 1/3 (one third) of the amount of the applicable access fee.
- 16.6. Collection Fees
 - 16.6.1. The initial "request fee" of R50,00 should be deposited into the bank account below and a copy of the deposit slip, application form and other correspondence/documents, forwarded to the Information Officer via fax.
 - 16.6.2. Capitalworks will collect the initial "request fee" of applications received directly by the Information Officer via email.
 - 16.6.3. All fees must be deposited into the company bank account which can be obtained from the Chief Financial Officer (contact details as per section 4 above).
- 16.7. All fees are subject to change as allowed for in the Act and as a consequence such escalations may not always be immediately available at the time of the request being made. Requesters shall be informed of any changes in the fees prior to making a payment.

17. DECISION

- 17.1. Time Allowed to Institution
 - 17.1.1. Capitalworks will, within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.
 - 17.1.2. The 30 (thirty) day period within which Capitalworks has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than thirty days if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of Capitalworks and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period.
 - 17.1.3. Capitalworks will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

18. AVAILABILITY AND UPDATING OF THE PAIA MANUAL

- 18.1. This PAIA Manual is made available in terms of Government Notice R187 of 15 February 2002. Capitalworks will update this PAIA Manual at such intervals as may be deemed necessary.
- 18.2. This PAIA Manual of Capitalworks is available to view at its premises: Capital Hill 7th Floor, 6 Benmore Road, Benmore, Sandton, 2010.
